Company Transition Letter

CNC DYNAMIX AG
Büron, 18th of July 2024

Dear Customers,
Dear Business Partners,
Dear Friends and Acquaintances,

On the occasion of the 25th anniversary of CNC DYNAMIX AG, we have great news to share! After thorough preparations, the management team led by Rudolf Weber and Marlis Weber-Aregger has decided to transfer the management and ownership rights of the company.

As of July 1, 2024, Christoph Stöckli is our new CEO, and Patrik Keller is the new COO. Both successors bring extensive experience and expertise to ensure the successful continuation and development of the company.

Christoph Stöckli has been with the company for over 15 years and is well known to our customers and business partners. He brings valuable qualities and know-how necessary to successfully lead the "CNC DYNAMIX" brand.

Patrik Keller will take on the role of COO, overseeing "Production Management," previously held by Christoph Stöckli. Mr. Keller has been with the company since 2021 and brings professionalism and extensive knowledge in operational management. His skills will ensure that our operational processes remain at the highest level and continue to improve.

Rudolf Weber will continue to support the company both operationally and in an advisory capacity. The company values and the high quality of our services and products, which Mr. Weber has meticulously maintained, will continue seamlessly.

We thank Rudolf Weber and Marlis Weber-Aregger for their extraordinary dedication, which has made CNC DYNAMIX AG what it is today. Under the new leadership of Mr. Stöckli and Mr. Keller, we are confident that the company will look forward to a successful future.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you, our valued customers, for your continued support and trust. Your satisfaction remains our top priority, and we look forward to continuing our close collaboration with you.

For questions or further information, please feel free to contact us.

Kind regards,
